The Open Science Implementation Award for Successful Completion of the Open Research Toolkit

This award reflects the commitment of the HBI to education and training the next generation of research leaders in brain and mental health. This award will allow the HBI to support engagement in open science and research at the U of C.

DONOR:	HBI
FIELD OF STUDY:	Open Science
VALUE:	$500.00 per award
NUMBER:	Variable, dependent on funding
DURATION:	One time
ELIGIBILITY:	Open to graduate students registered full-time in a graduate program and postdocs at the University of Calgary who are under the supervision of a full member of the Hotchkiss Brain Institute. For co-supervised students, the primary supervisor must be a full member of the HBI. Applicants must be able to show completion of a minimum of the 5-core asynchronous open science modules, with a quiz score of at least 80%. Applicants will also have had to attend at least 3 in-person open science workshops and have submission of a capstone project that illustrates how open practices have been implemented into their research.
CITIZENSHIP:	Unrestricted
WHERE TENABLE:	University of Calgary, Faculty of Graduate Studies
CATEGORY:	Recommended by Director

APPLY:

Applicants will be selected from those who apply, before funds are spent. An email should be sent to hbi.education@ucalgary.ca. This email will include the applicant's name, the name of their supervisor, their program (Master's, PhD, or Postdoc), as well list of relevant courses (with grades), dates of workshops attended, and the title of the capstone project.

Questions can be directed to the Open Science Coordinator, hbi@ucalgary.ca

Recommendations will be forwarded to the Deputy Director of the HBI for final review and decision.

ADJUDICATION:

Open Science Coordinator will screen applications for eligibility. Those that meet the eligibility will be passed on for signing by the Deputy Director. In the event that the number of applications exceeds the level of funding that is available, priority will be given to those who completed the requirements first.

DEADLINE:

Award to be done on a rolling basis.